The poor fellows, when they realized that deliverance was at hand, pointed to the side of the vessel beneath their feet and said in broken English, "One man inside." The pilotmen put their ears to the spot indicated and heard the voice of a human being calling in heartrending tones for help. After two hours' incessant toil the sailors succeeded in making a hole through which they could speak to the poor fellow within, who cried out that the water was rising and almost strangling him. THE STATE FAIR.

Fifth Day of the Exhibition---One More day .-- Attractive Programme etc.

The Eighteenth Annual Fair of the North Carolina Agricultural Society is drawing to a close. The work of the faithful and energetic officers of the Society have been crowned with snocess, while the exhibit in the various departments have not come up to the usual standard, yet the display reflects credit upon the exhibitors. The attractive programme yesterday drew quite a large crowd. At 9 a. m.

The work of packing up was going on at a rapid rate. The exhibition today will not be large, but the attractive programme of races must necessarily draw a large crowd, and vis'tors will be amply repaid.

THE AWARDS.

The labors of the awarding committees having been finished, the result in each Department will be announced to-day by Secretary Denson, and the premiums will be paid as far as practicable. We trust there will be no cause for complaint from any source whatever. The judges seem to have been selected with care, and they have performed the responsible duties assigned to them faithfully.

SPECIAL MENTION.

In many of the departments our reports have not been so complete as we desired and notwithstanding the close of the exhibition we take pleasure in making special mention of many of the meritorious displays before omitted: The poultry display by W. A. Nash, Esq., of Chatham, is really one of the finest we have seen at any exhibition. He entered 84 fowls, embracing turkeys, chickens, ducks and geese etc. Mr. Nash received no less than fifteen premiums for his valuable exhibition, and he deserved them. Mr. J. W. Perry, of Chatham, another extensive fruit raiser, exhibited apples, p aches, pears, &c., also a fine varie y of trees. Mr. P. also manufactures whisky, brandies, &c. HUGHES' SULKY PLOW, exhibited by E. Nye Hutchinson & Son, of Charlotte, N. C., general agents for the Carolinas, took the first premium and gold medal, awarded by the committee on yesterday. It will turn and subsoil more land than the two best two horse plows in the State; it is drawn by three horses, cuts a furrow eighteen inches wide, six inches in depth, subsoiling six inches additional, making a total in depth of twelve inches, thereby accomplishing what has long been desired by the best farmers of the State. A child twelve years of age, a man of sixty, a one-legged man will do as much plowing as the stalwart plowman of twenty-five. The off horse walking in the furrow enables the drive to guide the team without difficulty, the plow being on one side, permits both wheels to run on unplowed land; it will plow hillsides as smoothly as level land; the plow being adjustable, it is admirably adapted to covering up clover, peas and all vegetation of rank growth, at threshing and mowing machines, and thus secure a farming implement of great value, at less cost than they now incur. Sale of fine stock will take place at noon to-day.

Meeting of the State Agricultural Society.

The meeting was called to order in Commons Hall at 71 o'clock last evening, by President Holt. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. ADDRESS OF PROF. PHILLIPS.

Great desire was felt to hear this address on the marls of the State, and it came fully up to the expectations of the audience. He gave evidence of a thorough research into the whole subject, and a most interesting comparative statement of the value of the marls to this State and New Jersey, and set forth clearly the great value of the marls as a fertilizer, and that it must eventually produce in this State what it has in others—the source of vast improvements to our soil, increasing its

INDIAN OUTRAGES.

Cruelty that surpasses Belief--Peaceful Homes Laid Waste.

The Indians reached the vicinity of the creek about 8 o'clock in the morning. James G. Smith, his son—a young man of twenty-one—and John Hudson were in their meadow, a mile from the trail, loading hay, when the Indians rode towards them to the number of fifteen or twenty. The savages made friendly signs as they came up, and the elder Smith, who had been accustomed to Indians, went on with his work. One of the Indians took a horse by the ing they met Mr. William Lang, who, with his youngest son, Freeman, and two young ladies, sisters, was going over to Prairie Dog creek. One buck rode up to Mr, L and extended his hand, with a "How!" While the old gentle-man was in the act of shaking hands with the savage, another came up and shot him through the neck. Freeman Lang was shot through the body. The ladies were taken out of the wagon and held while the wagon was plundered. The horses were cut from the wagon and the harness destroyed, and then commenced their brutality to the women. The young ladies were seized and stripped. Each was then seized by two mounted Indians and dragged through the thickest underbrush for half a mile until their bodies were one mass of lacerations. When this phase of the savage deviltry had been satisfied, the sisters were separated and taken out of sight of each other. Here the young bucks satisfied their lust.

Occasionally they would suffer the half dead girls to go off a short distance and then a fresh detachment would arrive and the outrages would recommence. Finally, half dead with fright, and covered with bruises, they were allowed to depart, and made their way to the Ministers who Died at Their Posts.

The City of Deadwood, Deadwood has now a population of bout 4,000, and is the commercial centre of the Black Hills region. It has rude theatres, dance houses, gambling nells, and uncounted bar-rooms; yet a recent visitor says there is far less ruflanism than might fairly be expected in a new mining place. There are banks, hurches, a school bouse, a newspap r good income out of the extensive litiga-tion over the titles to mines. Deadwood is in an irregular gulch, has already outgrown its space, and begins to climb the precipitous sides of the hills by which it is enclosed. White cottages, approached by winding paths and steps, stand hundreds of feet above the level of the town. Under Deadwood proper there is another city—the cities of the miners. Openings to the tunnels and shafts are seen at various the tunnels and shafts the placer miner digs out the yellow earth, and sluices it for the crumbs of gold that, during the long ages, have been slowly escaping from the quartz lodes in the hills. Meantime, Hudson started to drive off his team, but the animals were frightened and ran off. While running to catch them he was shot dead. After firing seven arrows into Smith's body, the Indians fired at him with rifles, fracturing the left arm and inflicting a flesh wound in the left thigh. Young Smith started to run, and was followed by a mounted Indian, who rode alongside of him and fired seven shots at him from a Winchester rifle. He came so close that Smith struck him in the breast with a pitchfork. The Indian threw himself behind his horse's neck, firing a last shot at Smith, who gained the brush and hid. They hunted for him some time, but he escaped unharmed. The elder Smith crawled into the bushes, where he was found twentyeight hours after. Twenty-five ministers, including twelve Roman Catholic priests, have died in the cities of the Southwest since the beginning of the yellow fever epidemic. All Protestant churches— Methodist, Baptist, Lutheran, Episcopal, Presbyterian—are represented in the list. These men stood in their lot in days of terror and gloom, and fell upon the field where God had placed them. There is no form of heroism more true or more noble than that which keeps men at the post of duty in the face of such perils. It must be based on a permanent principle, on a devotion to men's good which will last through weary weeks and month, and fall not in the midst of unimagicable that very close estimates can now be made upon the result. The total vote cast falls short of that of last year. The Republican majority for Secretary of State is 4,102. The national vote reaches somewhere between 30,000 and 35,000, a small increase upon last year's. John G. Thompson, chairman of the Demo-G. Thompson, chairman of the Demo-cratic State Committee, estimates that two-thirds of this vote came from the Merrimon abide the decision of the ranks of the Democrats. It is more caucus? likely, however, that it was about evenly divided between the two parties.

The following is the material portion of the card of Congressman Acklen, of Louisiana, issued to his constituents and the greatest of inducements are after the committee of prominent De-mocrats of that State had decided that he ought to withdraw from the Congressional canvass because of his failure to explain away satisfactorily to them a recent scandal with which his name is connected:

"The political features of the case ar for you, my constituents, to judge of, and after the election I shall ask that each parish in my district appoint one of her citizens, making in all a committee of twelve, to pass upon the social question in this case and render their verdict. Not that my complete vindication by the gentlemen of the Republican committee on t is point is not amply sufficient, but I prefer that you of my district, who have so honored me, should you then deem so vile a slander worthy of notice, shall appoint the judges in this case, when party considerations and political expediency will be out of the question. To you, my constituents, and to you only, do I owe my present position, and to you, and you only, will I leave a decision as to my political course. My confidence in your common sense is as great as that you have shown in me by your splendid and continued support, and I feel well assured that you are not to be affected a new dress for the occasion, sprung in the heat of a political campaign, and hot from the hands of a notorious black-

It is a great question whether it is best on the whole for a nation to have its land held and cultivated in moderately large farms, or to have the land cut up into numerous small allotments so far as produce is concerned. There is no doubt much more is to be had this one side, however, it seems that the value of small proprietorships, in increasing the fertility of the soil strikingly illustrated in the village of Wender, near Potsdam. The area of this parish, which has a population of 3,000 is 2,300 acres, of which 975 acres are devoted to fruit culture. These 975 acres are distributed among no less than 550 owners, so that each cultivator holds on an average 13 acres of land. The natural soil of the district is for the most part exceedingly poor, but by the skill of the occupiers the land under cultivation is now remarkable for its fertility and very heavy crops of the finest quality are annual ly produced. The crops, as a matter of course, vary according to the season, but in 1875 no less than 2,500,000 gallons of fruit were sent to Berlin alone. In Time of Peace Prepare for War.

If you have any cotton, expenditures $1,189,581. Only $100.000 were appropriated for the manufacture of small arms during the year, and there are in store as a reserve supply 15.900 rifles and 6,685 carbines, all of the latest patterns. Gen. Benet submits an estimate of $900.000 for the manufacture of arms during the next iscal year, and makes an claborate argument in favor thereof. He also submits an estimate of $905.000 for the armament of our fortification during the pext fiscal year. General Benet bases his argument mainly on the value of preparation for the emergency of war, and also says the manufacture of arms will give the idle mechanic the privilege of laboring for his bread. He lavors the increase of the annual appropriation (now $200 000) for arming the militia, whose force now numbers, organized, 93.697; unorganized, 3,734,-693. New organizations, he says, ought to be encouraged, and the whole body of the militia ought to by organized and disciplined as the constitution

Cincinnati Enquirer, A singular attempt at abduction oc curred at Dayton, Ky., a suburb of Covington, at about 3 o'clock last Saturday morning. Annie and Katie King, two sisters, are very small women who live alone in a little house in Dayton. They have frequently been asked to travel with shows and exhibit themselves as dwarfs. The little women having inherited sufficient property to enable them to live comfortably, always refused such invitations. On Saturday m "ning, about 3 o'clock, five men went to the King house, and unlocking the door with skeleton keys, entered with the evident intention of abducting the Misses King. The women, however, dexterously slipped away from the men, escaped into the street and to the home of a brother near by. The men disappeared before they could be seen by the police or others. The women are very small, being in stature about forty-eight inches, and weighing only forty-tion. W. H. Morris & Co.

The Perils of Cowardice. To seek for the Right, and the Right pursue, regardless of consequences, is the safest-the only safe-plan as well in politics, as in morals. Expedients like chickens almost always come home to roost. Compromises, where principle is involved, amount to a kind of political compounding of wrong; and in the end are almost certain to cost as much or more than they saved in the beginning. The South, prior to the civil war, which really dates from the Henry Clay "settlement," of 1840, which was supposed to entirely dispel the clouds of war, submitted to compromise after compromise, with invariable loss therefrom. So in South Carolina, after the war, the policy of expediency sauk the State deeper and deper in the Slough of Despond, until at length a vigorous, straight-out campaign was made, whereupon a complete sweep changed the aspect of affairs from gloom and despair to hope and

This line of thought is suggested as the eye falls upon Mr. Samuel J. Tilden's somewhat tardy "card," in denial glorious personally, than any a soldier of any knowledge of the notorious "cy pher despatches," relating to the purchase of an electoral vote in Florida; or, let us say, the payment of $50,000, as a testimonial of respect and esteem, to one of the Immaculate Floridian Electors, who had secretly signified a willingness to act honest!y,-"for-a-small-consideration."

No unprejudiced person will question the credibility of Mr. Tilden's denial. We accept it absolutely. Indeed, up to within a couple of years ago, the very insinuation of such a thing would have been howled down as preposterous. Every Democrat would have said-"Is our candidate a dog. that he should do this thing? Uncle Sammy is neither so dishonest, nor so much of a fool!" We are still ready us pause. No man can recall the weakness, the shuffling, the pandering to whims, the fear of popular clamor, that characterized the Democratic policy, presumably guided by Mr. Tilden, during the shameful fall of 1876, with out being inspired by a gigantic firstclass disgust! The whole chapter is a disgrace to American history. The Democrats had fairly elected their man, they held control of the popular branch of Congress, they had both the moral, and the constitutional RIGHT on their side; yet it was they, not the Republicans, who were all timidity, trembling at every threat of trouble; it was they who stood halting between two opinions, whimpering of a possible "wah" and deprecating the "effect on commerce," the "unsettling of values," and much other insane talk of the same sort. The Radicals, on the other hand. knew they had not elected their man; knew they had no Right to the Presidency, nor any legal excuse for holding it, yet was they, not the Democrats who were all boldness, who swaggered as masters of the situation, hectoring the Democrats with both tongue and pen; and threatening the "Democratic Rebels" with a "second thrashing," if they should make any effort to assert their just claims. The Radical leaders acted throughout upon the theory that "a lie well stuck to" will always win against the truth, backed by such men as Tilden and company.

"But why?" says one,-" why saddle it all upon Mr. Tilden, who merely fell in with the current of public opinion at the time?" The answer is that when a General accepts the leadership of an army he takes upon himself the duty of organizing victory. No one interferes, no one questions his methods, every member, from "high private in the rear rank" up to the M jor General. submits to his guidance, in full confidence that he will, by hook or by crook, bring matters to a successful conclusion. But if he fail-if he be defeatedupon him devolves the blame. Far worse when the defeat is due to weakness and timidity! Mr. Tilden had the majority of the country at his back from the day of the election until the completion of the electoral count. The least hint from him had the weight of law upon the Democratic leaders, who in turn controlled the masses. As a matter of course the stress upon him was very the stress upon him was very nial exhibit great. He lived within a few doors of sep 27 tf Wall street, and had for daily companvent any commotion which might interfere with their money-getting. Tilden, impressed by their talk, weakly hesitated, and finally adopted the Micawberlike policy of "waiting for something to turn up." He remained mute as a plaster-of Paris owl until the Electoral Commission was established, and the country sold out to-the dish-watery little man who has since sold out the Republicans-" in the interests of Reform !" And now, after all his forbearance after allowing himself to be swindled out of his life's greatest honor, "Uncle Sammy" finds himself accused of trying to steal that which was his by right! Truly, fearful are the perils of cowardice!

We hear it said that certain aspirants will abide by the decision of the Democratic caucus "if it be FAIRLY obtained." This is an insult to every Democratic member of the Legislature! Are our Representatives in that body unworthy of confidence? Are they tricksters? Are they to be watched?

We say that any aspirant who doubts the fairness of the deliberate action of the Representatives of the Democratic party, has no right to call himself a Democrat! We say that any man who refuses to abide the Caucus has no right to go before it! He assumes to threaten it? "Nominate me,"he says "or I'll get the Radicals to do it! I'll expose your trickery! I don't abide by your decision, because it was gotten by wire-pulling, by blandishments by other UNFAIR means-and, of course I am to judge as to that.

The death of Liet. H. H. Benner. the United States officer commanding the "Relief vessel"-(a steamer loaded with clothing and food, and sent down the Mississippi river to relieve vellow fever sufferers residing along its banks) - is a noble ending for a life not always deserving. Lieut. Benner was one of "Dog" Merrill's subalterns at Yorkville, S. C., during the shameless ku klux crusade by which Merrill extorted over thirty thousand dollars. Benner at one time was as lawless as his commander; even threatening to shoot Capt. R. A. Shotwellif he should enter York county. He subsequently apologized for the threat, as well as for some of his illegal arrests; and left among the people of York the impression that he was a clever-natured, but dissipated, and ill regulated young man. Happily he died in the performance of a duty as perilous, and more could undertake.

Unwelcome Immigrants. N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

The United States, it is said, will become the home of all the more violent German Socialists, if Bismarck's bill for repression passes the Reichtag. By husbanding their funds they are reported to be providing for such a contingency. Probably the bill was made extremely severe with the purpose and hope of driving those dangerous persons out of Germany. There seems to bave been lately a greater disposition in the Reichstag, among all parties excent the Socialists, to pass the bill with its original stringency. All the German conservatives, of whatever party, would cry good riddance to the assassius, thieves and lunatics who are the controlling forces of socialism. It would pay Germany well to ship these persons at her own expense to the United States. We do not look for their to admit the honesty, but-there let coming, however, at an early, or at any day. The leading spirits of socialism are not the industrious and thrifty men who seek homes in new lands. They are idlers who live in the beer cellars of great cities and spout sedition when their brains are fuddled. While they can get a free drink in Berlin, they will not leave that city; or, if obliged to quit Germany for fear of arrest, they will only cross the border into other lands which have no laws against socialism, and where dupes may be found to keep the refugees in beer. Should a few of these Socialists, leaving their country for their country's good, come to the United States, they need cause no alarm to the most timid. Communism on this soil and in this generation is now known to be a mere bugbear. It may be exaggerated to serve the purposes of men on horseback who want to ride again into power as "saviors of society." But we have coped with it and found it to be easily suppressed by a few resolute policemen, with a reserve of militia. The German Socialists are not welcome here. But the American people are not afraid of them, and will give to them the hospitality of almshouses and jails, if they refuse to earn a living, like the rest of us, by hard work.

AND WAS CURED.

Delaware, O., Feb. 16, 1877.

Mr. H. R. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir.—I wish to give you this testimony, that you may know, and let others know, what Vegetine has done for me. About two years ago a small sore came on my leg; it soon became a large Ulcer, so troublesome that I consulted the doctor, but I got no relief, growing worse from day to day. I suffered terribly: I could not rest day or night; I was so reduced my friends thought I would never recover. I consulted a doctor at Columbus. I followed his advice: it did no good. I can truly say I was discouraged. At this time I was looking over my newspaper; I saw your advertisement of it did no good. I can truly say I was discouraged. At this time I was looking over my newspaper; I saw your advertisement of Vegetine. the "Great Blood, Purifier," for cleansing the blood from all impurities, curing Humor Ulcers, &c. I said to my family I will try some of the Vegetine. Pefore I had used the first bottle I began to feel better. I made up my mind I had got the right medicine at last. I could now sleep well nights. I continued tawing the Vegetine. I took thirteen bottles. My health is good The Ulcer Is gone and I am able to attend business. I paid about four hundred dollars for medicine and doctors before a bought the Vegetine. I have recommended Vegetine to others with good success. I always keep a bottle of it in the house now. It is a most excellent medicine.

Wery respectfully yours,

"It will Care You if You Give it a Fair Test."

A GERTAIN AND SPEEDY

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of eve. getting well. I was treated during that time by three very emine, t physiciaus, without any good resuit. I then went to the National Surgical institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After treturned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties, My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enloying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is haled, to remove the cause of its effects, It shoul be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure all eady made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all whears a suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you gi e it a fal test. I speak from experience, and it if the proper time. I would recommend to all whears a suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you gi e it a fal test. I speak from experience, and it is trom hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure rom the use of it and I am der many and I sting obligations to Mrs. Jer on or the great relief I have obtained from its use. Fufferes, try it and be cured, is my advice.

Mrs. Vance Worse.

The Governor received a telegram yesterday afternoon, stating that Mrs. Vance's condition was worse, and he left for Charlotte on the 5.30 p. m. train.

Mayor's Court.

At the session of this court yesterday morning three drunks and downs, who had been placed in the guardhouse for 24 hours, were discharged, and three other parties, charged with being drunk and disorderly, were also released upon each of them paying $2 25 costs.

Invited to Weldon.

Major Bingham's Cadets have been cordially invited by the President of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society to attend the Fair at Weldon. Tuesday week. The corp's presence will add greatly to the attrac ions of the occasion, and it is to be hoped the invitation will be accepted.

Delivery of Premiums.

At 101 a. m. to-day the premiums awarded will be announced in the lower hall of the General Exhibition building, and will be immediately afterwards delivered in the same building. Let everybody go to receive such premiums promptly, as the officers are anxious to deliver them at once.

Tucker Hall.

Last night the hall was crowded and the audience delighted. The cast for Rip Van Winkle was excellent, Mr. Templeton as "Rip" won the audience from the start. Alice Vane made an ex-cellent "Gretchen." Little Fay charmed the crowd with her song "As pretty as a picture." She received an encore and responded with another ballad.

Invisible Husband with All the Fashion is billed for to-night.

For the Penitentiary. Three convicts were turned over to the penitentiary authorities yesterday. Deputy Sheriff H. C. Hardeson, of Martin county brought in two: Willis Spruill and Lenthus Tucker, both convicted of larceny and sentenced to 2 and 10 years respectively; and J. J. Vann Deputy Sheriff of Hertford Joseph Mitchell also convicted of larceny and sentenced for 1 year.

Sale at [the Fair Grounds Today.

The fine herd of Devon cattle of the best quality, from the Linwood Farm of Col. Thomas M. Holt, will be offered for sale to-day at the Fair Grounds. It is a rare opportunity for those desiring good stock. There are also offered a noble stallion, Charlie Morgan; also an excellent milch cow and a good mule. Other live stock and some valuable fanning mills. &c., may also be purchased. It is a good chance for bargains.

The Ball.

Last evening the elite of North Carolina assembled by invitation of the Mongram Hop Club, in the spacious hall of the National. A. W. Haywood, Esq., was the chief floor manager, and well did he perform his duties. Gen. Ransom, Col. Octavius Coke, Gen. Roberts, Col C J Knowles, of Columbia, S. C., Judge Settle, Dr. C. G. Gee, Col. J. D. Whitford and our Lieut. Governor were on the floor.

Stabbed With a Bayonet.

We learn that whilst the Edgecomb Juards were waiting for the train at cheek of the other, making an ugly wound. They were soon reparated and ence solicited. the comany left directly after. As many of these warriors had been fighting John Barley-corn all the afternoon it is not surprising that some-body got hurt. We hope that no serious damage was done.

Disorderly Conduct.

As the 5:45 train was leaving the Fair grounds last evening, two members of the colored fire company attempted to prices. force their way on the train on one ticket, they were both drunk, the conductor stopped them, when they showed fight. Other members of the company remonstrated with them, but they would hear nothing, and were roughly handled and put off by the conductor. assisted by gentlemen standing by, and also by the members of the company who had urged them not to conduct themselves so disorderly. One lady in the car fainted from fright, and many others were alarmed.

Barna's Cotton Planter.

The Characteristics of this planter, which took the premium at the fair, is simplicity in construcion, consisting of a cylinder or drum, holding two bushels of seed, with a wheel on each end of the drum. The process of sew-—There were only four pairs of end of the drum. The process of sew-bracelets stolen from Mahler's jewelry ing the seed, around the centre of this drum, are one inch holes, one and a ing; it distributes the seed evenly and in the system. Surely the advisability of sews guano and cotton seed together, or separately, to perfection; it has an iron clad opener, and a coverer weighing sixteen pounds, in connection with the coverer it is necessary to have that weight to execute its work well; the handles run down sufficiently far to guide the coverer and keep it on the idge. The planter is light, is easily drawn by one horse, and the wheels are so adjusted that a man can sew his seed almost without touching the handles. The seed are kept separated in the Cylinder by ten iron spikes; it is exceedingly substantial and well made. It will be manufactured by T. M. Barna, the inventor, who can be addressed at Hamilton, N. C.

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many Physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages. Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c., who have no personal knowledge of Coschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 doze were sold last year without one com plaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all

From Acute to Chronic Is an easy stage in cases of dyspepsia A slight attack of indigestion, especially when there is a predisposition to digestive weakness of the stomach, must speedily culminate in the most obstinate form of the disease. It is well, therefore to adopt preventative measures early. Although Hostetter's Stomach Bitters overcome, if persisted in, cases of dyspepsia of long standing, it is obviously the part of wisdom to use it ere the malady assumes a chronic phase. This is particularly true, because as dyspepsia advances, it engen-ders other bodily evils, such as disorder of the liver, constipation or undue looseness of the bowels, nervous disorders, hypochondria, sleeplessness. These maladies are both prevented and remedied by the Bitters, but how much better to check them in their outset with quarter inches apart; there are two the great alterative, than to wait until movable iron hoops to regulate the sew- they have established a firmer foothold this must be apparent.

P BAKING POWDER FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial tria. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful esperiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding, it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Ct emists in the United States, whese certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money over the consumer. It stands Univaled; we challenge the world to produce better pure and more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE READ IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER. IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY. IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME. YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR. YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST. YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER. YOUR HEALIH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterate and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder, would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscripulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article throughout the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."
